Purpose of the qualification

Why study the LIBF Level 3 Certificate in International Trade and Finance (CITF)?

The Certificate in International Trade and Finance (CITF[®]) provides you as a trade, export and commodity specialist with a thorough understanding of the key international trade procedures, practices and legislation.

CITF[®] develops the technical knowledge and skills required to enable you to apply that knowledge to situations within the workplace. Within this, it provides a core understanding of the products, documents, trade terms, roles and responsibilities that underpin international trade and finance. In addition to this core knowledge, CITF[®] helps you to develop a basic understanding of fraud prevention and risk in terms of trade finance.

Objective

CITF[®] develops your understanding of the main principles associated with international trade and finance.

Key content areas

- The trade environment and the role of the ICC.
- ICC international model contracts.
- An introduction to trade terms and Incoterms[®].
- The nature of financial, commercial and transport documents used in international trade.
- Risk and mitigation including foreign exchange hedging.
- Methods of payment including open account, collections, documentary credits and bank payment obligations.
- Short, medium and long term trade finance.
- Islamic trade finance.
- Dispute handling, arbitration and resolution.
- Fraud prevention and anti- money laundering.

Learning outcomes

- LO1 Understand the role and responsibilities of different parties involved in international trade, the role of dispute settlements and the external impacts on international trade.
- LO2 Understand the different methods of settlement and financing available, the documents used and the rules that govern international trade.

Key skills developed

The qualification will encourage you to:

- understand the processes involved in each type of international trade product, roles and responsibilities of all parties involved in international trade transactions and the risks involved.
- develop an understanding of current technical language, methods and practices of international trade and finance.
- select and analyse international trade and finance products and services and reflect upon their desirability and effectiveness in a variety of scenarios.
- understand how international trade finance products respond to the drivers and implications of changes in the wider international environment and how these changes affect decision-making.
- increase your ability to work and learn independently.

Entry requirements

There are no specified entry requirements. However, you need to be satisfied of your ability to study in English at Level 3.

Recognition of prior learning

In line with the London Institute of Banking & Finance regulations, as CITF is a single unit qualification, recognition of prior learning does not apply.

Progression and preparation for further study

Although not a requirement for registration on to other international trade qualifications, if you have successfully completed the CITF[®] qualification will have developed an appropriate foundation to support your progression on to the following qualifications:

Certificate for Documentary Credit Specialists (CDCS[®])

CDCS[®] is the international standard qualification for documentary credit specialists. It is a professional certification that enables you as a documentary credit practitioner to demonstrate specialist knowledge and application of the skills required for competent practice.

Certificate for Specialists in Demand Guarantees (CSDG[®])

CSDG[®] is a specialist qualification focusing on demand guarantees. The certificate provides the key knowledge and skills needed to operate effectively in a highly technical area of international trade.

Apprenticeships

CITF forms part of the Senior Financial Services Customer Advisor Apprenticeship Standards. Further details can be found on the Gov website

Preparation for employment

This qualification develops knowledge and understanding of the international trade and finance sector although it does not qualify you for direct entry to a particular occupational role.

Structure

CITF[®] is made up of one mandatory unit which needs to be successfully completed in order for you to achieve the certificate:

Total Qualification Time (TQT)

Total Qualification Time (TQT) is a prediction of the total time a student with no prior knowledge might need to complete the course.

TQT consists of two elements, Guided Learning (GL) and all other hours:

- GL is time spent studying under the immediate guidance of supervision of a teacher.
- All other hours include hours spent unsupervised in research, learning, e-learning, e-assessment, completing coursework, completing homework, exam preparation, and formal assessments.

CITF[®] is primarily considered as a self directed study qualification with planned examination sessions.

Guided Learning Hours	0 hours
Other hours	200 hours
Total Qualification Time	200 hours

Learning resources

You will be provided with the following learning resources:

- online access via MyLIBF - www.myLIBF.com to learning materials and to KnowledgeBank (virtual library);
- unit syllabuses;
- study text;
- specimen paper; and,
- student-led forum.

What to do before the assessment

Upon application to the course you are automatically registered for a specific examination session.

To prepare for the assessment you should make use of all learning resources as part of your revision for the course exam.

Assessment

The unit is assessed through a single two hour examination consisting of a combination of Multiple Choice Questions (Part A) and case study exercises (Part B). A total of 100 marks are available. The pass mark for the examination is 70% of the marks. The structure of the assessment ensures that all aspects of the course content are subject to external examination which is conducted under strict examination conditions.

Qualification grading

The overall qualification will be graded Pass. You must achieve a mark of 70% overall.

The qualification grade boundaries are as follows:

Grade	mark
Pass	70–100

Re-sit attempts

You are allowed to resit the unit in accordance with the published The London Institute of Banking & Finance policies. Full terms and conditions are available on the website.
